Delivery Options

NQual allows qualifications to be delivered both online and face-to-face. Please check the additional requirements with your Centre EQA if delivering qualifications online.

Grading and Assessment

Assessment is used to measure a learner's skill, knowledge, experience and understanding against the criteria set out in this qualification. This qualification is internally assessed, internally quality assured and externally quality assured.

The assessments consist of:

- Unit 1: Understanding the Principles and Practices of Externally Assuring the Quality of Assessment: This knowledge-based unit will consist of assignment work and accompanying evidence.

To evidence that the unit criteria has been met, assignments can consist of written questions, recorded professional discussions, regulatory documents, EQA planning documents, IQA reports, meeting agendas & minutes, standardisation documents, policies and procedures.

- Unit 2: Externally Quality Assure the Quality of Assessment: A practical based unit will consist of a portfolio of evidence. The portfolio of evidence must contain EQA activities of at least 2 separate EQA visits. This can include the use of one training provider having an initial and follow up EQA visit, or 1 EQA visit for two separate training providers.

The portfolio of evidence could contain:

- Confirmation email from the Awarding Organisation to give consent for the learner to conduct EQA activities on their behalf
- An external quality assurance plan
- Evidence of external quality assurance visits (remote or face-to-face EQA visits)
- Quality assurance evidence
- EQA activity documents/ reports
- EQA feedback recording/ observation
- Meeting agendas and minutes
- Standardisation evidence
- Evidence of communications with the Awarding Organisation
- Recordings of practice
- Policies and Procedures
- Reflective Journal
- CPD records

Please note, this is not an exhaustive list.

The learner will also be required to complete at least one observation with an Awarding Organisation to demonstrate how they carry out external quality assurance in practice. The observation can be conducted in one of two ways:

1. The learner will complete a feedback meeting as part of an EQA visit and will record the entire contents of the meeting. This recording is submitted as evidence and
2. The EQA qualified assessor from the NQual Approved Centre, will be invited to the feedback meeting as part of the EQA visit, and will observe the learner either remotely, or face-to-face.

Stimulations are not allowed.

Approved Centre

To deliver any NQual qualification, each centre must be approved by NQual and meet the qualification approval criteria. The recognition process requires centres to implement policies and procedures to protect learners when undergoing NQual qualifications.

Approved centres must seek approval for each qualification they wish to offer.

The approval process requires centres to demonstrate that they have the resources, including staff, and processes in place to deliver and assess the qualification.

Once approved to offer this qualification, centres must register learners before any assessment takes place. Centres must follow NQual's procedures for registering learners.

Support From NQual

NQual supports all new and existing approved centres. We respond to all communication within 48 hours and hold regular information webinars. If you would like to book our next webinar, please visit the 'News & Events' section on our website.

Initial Assessment

It is part of the enrolment process by the approved centre to complete an initial assessment. Approved centres must ensure everyone undertaking an NQual qualification complete some form of initial assessment. This will be used to inform the tutor/trainer of current knowledge and understanding.

Reasonable Adjustment

NQual is committed to providing fair and reasonable adjustments for learners to help reduce the effect of a disability or difficulty that places the learners at a disadvantage during an assessment. For more information on Reasonable Adjustments, please see our Reasonable Adjustments and Fair Access Policy.
