

Overview

The End-Point Assessment (EPA) is the final stage of the apprenticeship and provides an opportunity for apprentices to demonstrate the knowledge, skills, and behaviours they have developed during their Early Intervention Practitioner Level 4 apprenticeship.

The assessment for a Early Intervention Practitioner Level 4 apprentice includes a Presentation with Questions and a Professional Discussion underpinned by a Portfolio of Evidence.

An apprentice cannot achieve their apprenticeship without passing the End-Point Assessment.

The End-Point Assessment for Early Intervention Practitioner Level 4 can be carried out face-to-face or remotely.

Gateway

Gateway requirements for an Early Intervention Practitioner Level 4 apprentices includes.

- Evidence of achieving relevant maths and English qualifications if required by funding regulations or the employer
- Completion of Portfolio of Evidence
- Confirmation that the apprentice is ready for Assessment

Assessment Methods

Presentation with Questions

You will produce and deliver a presentation to an independent assessor. You must submit your presentation slides and any supporting materials to the AO two weeks after Gateway has been approved. The presentation and questions will last at least 45 minutes. The independent assessor will ask you at least 4 questions.

Professional Discussion Underpinned by a Portfolio of Evidence

You will have a professional discussion with an independent assessor. It will last 60 minutes + 10%. They will ask you at least 10 questions. The questions will be about certain aspects of your occupation. You need to compile a portfolio of evidence before Gateway to support you in answering questions.

Results

Results will be communicated within 10 working days of the final assessment.

If an apprentice Fails one or more component, they will be offered the opportunity to re-sit / re-take the component(s). It is then up to the apprentice's employer how many attempts an apprentice is given.

Where any assessment method must be re-sat or re-taken, the apprentice will be awarded a maximum grade of Pass. Re-sits and re-takes are not offered to an apprentice wishing to move from Pass to a higher grade.
